THE AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND

Since 1990, Pendleton has been proud to support the work of the American Indian College Fund. Sales of these blankets fund scholarships to tribal colleges and make a difference in the lives of students throughout the country. The College Fund receives royalties for each blanket sold, which goes directly to provide scholarships for deserving students. Learn more at www.collegefund.org

AMERICAN INDIAN COLLEGE FUND
EDUCATION IS THE ANSWER

7 GENERATIONS

7 Generations illustrates the past, present and future of the Native peoples. The central N7 motif represents the impact of each person (the diamond) on the three generations before and after (arrows). A storm pattern with zigzags of lightning honors heritage. Squared corners echo the Four Sacred Mountains, surrounded by a dazzler design. Steps show the path to overcoming life's challenges. Colors inspired by traditional dyes reflect the southwestern landscape. 7 Generations was designed by Tracie Jackson (Diné), a 4th generation artisan from Star Mountain. Unnapped, suede bound. Dry clean, 82% pure virgin wool, 18% cotton. Made in the USA. Available 11/15/19

BLANKET ROBES

These blankets are robe size, the size preferred by Native Americans for ceremonial purposes and wrapping about oneself as a robe. They are impressive as wall hangings and practical when folded on a sofa or at the foot of a bed.

CRESCENT BAY

Crescent Bay is part of California's 810 miles of ocean coastline. Waves of diamonds represent the waters of the bay, where divers can see an array of sea life: kelp gardens, fish, seals, sea lions—even sharks. Above the bay floats the marine layer, an inversion created when the cool ocean meets warm air. Sometimes clear, sometimes foggy, the marine layer lingers along the coast, gently dispelling inland heat with the cooling power of the Pacific Ocean. Unnapped, felt bound. Dry clean, 82% pure virgin wool, 18% cotton. Made in the USA.
